We have clearly pointed out the things now transpiring and the worse conditions yet to come. ...that this great Time of Trouble will manifest fully that the civilization of our day..., is merely skin deep - merely a veneer. National animosities will become personal animosities until, as the Bible foretold, there will be no peace... because ‘every man’s hand shall be against his neighbor.’ (Ezekiel 38:21.) R5852

...in writing to Titus \(2:2\), enumerating the characteristics of the advanced Christian, the Apostle uses the following order: "Vigilant, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity [love], in patience." Though we have all the other qualities, this final test of patient, cheerful endurance must be passed before we can be accepted of the Lord as members of the very elect. B41
